TABLE OF CONTENTS

Documenting Society and Institutions:
The Influence of Helen Willa Samuels
Terry Cook ............................................ 1

Documenting Society

Documenting Appraisal as a Societal-Archival Process: Theory
Practice, and Ethics in the Wake of Helen Willa Samuels
Tom Nesmith ........................................... 31

Traveling in a Hellenic World: An Odyssey from Oral History and Documentation Strategy to Continuing Issues and Integrated Recordkeeping
Gregory Sanford ........................................ 51

The Archival Garden: Photographic Plantings, Interpretive
Choices, and Alternative Narratives
Joan M. Schwartz ..................................... 69

The Complication of Color in an Academic Archive
Nancy Bartlett ........................................ 111

Technology's Promise, the Copying of Records, and the Archivist's Challenge: A Case Study in Documentation Rhetoric
Richard J. Cox ........................................ 131

Brown Shoes in a World of Tuxedos: Corporate Archives and the Archival Profession
Bruce H. Bruemmer ................................... 151

A Cautionary Tale about Laws, Records, and Technology:
Making a Case for Electronic Records Management
Robert Horton ......................................... 171

Keeping Records in Changing Organizations
Rick Barry .............................................. 195

The Tower, the Cloud, and Posterity: Documenting in a Digital World
Richard N. Katz and Paul B. Gandel .................. 217
Representing Archives/Being Archival

Structural Formalisms in Documentation: Reflecting Function and Supporting Meaning
David Bearman .................................................. 241

Who Represents the Past? Archives, Records, and the Social Web
Elizabeth Yakel .................................................. 257

Designs for Records and Recordkeeping: Visual Presentation in Diplomatics, the Record Continuum, and Documentation Strategy
Brien Brothman .................................................. 279

The Evolution of Archival Practice and the History-Archival Divide
Francis X. Blouin Jr. ............................................. 317

The Archivist’s Perspective: The History of an Idea
James M. O’Toole ................................................. 329

Ethics and the Archive: “An Incessant Movement of Recontextualization”
Verne Harris ...................................................... 345

How Archivists “Control the Past”
Randall C. Jimerson ............................................ 363

Reflections

Making Better Professionals: Reflections on Selected Writings of Helen Willa Samuels
Elisabeth Kaplan .................................................. 383

Learnings: Weaving It All Together
Helen Willa Samuels ............................................. 395

Contributors .......................................................... 415

Technical Note and Acknowledgments ............................................. 423

Index ................................................................. 425